

HARBOR HEIGHTS NEWSLETTER NOVEMBER 2018

The Harbor Heights Christmas Party will be Wednesday, December 5th at Cotton Exchange Restaurant. The cost is $19.00 per person.

The menu will include: Beef tips w/buttered noodles, chicken parmesan, smashed potatoes, tossed salad, rolls, vegetable, coffee & tea. Connie Puls will again make cheesecakes for dessert.

The party will begin at Noon with a cash bar & time to visit with friends. Buffett lunch will be served at 1:00.

Our entertainment this year is Tim Gresl – he performs classic country – Johnny Cash, Elvis, etc.

Please have your reservation & payment to the office before November 21st. If you are writing a check, please make it payable to Harbor Heights LLC.

There is plenty of parking & access is easy, if you have never been to the party before or have not come for a few years, please consider joining us for an afternoon of fun & friends. If you would like to bring friends from outside of Harbor Heights, please do so, everyone is welcome!!

Local Girl Scout Troops will be Christmas Caroling in Harbor Heights this year!! They will be here on Thursday, December 20th between 5:00 – 6:30 p.m. They will knock on doors to hand out cards & sing. If you would like to hear them, please leave your porch light on so they know where to stop. (this info will also be in the December newsletter)

Election Day is Tuesday, Nov. 6th. Remember to Vote!

There will be NO Corner Coffee this month; However, Dianne Schmidt will be hosting coffee in December at her home.

Welcome to our newest residents:

Estelle Moldenhauer – 539 Harbor Heights

Gary & Phyllis McGroarty – 631 Park Ridge
